Brief bio of one of our customers – Secure Components

We occasionally feature customers in our newsletters. This lets other newsletter subscribers know about other businesses that utilize the services of ListInventory.com. This month's featured company is Secure Components.

Formed in 2008, Secure Components is a global distributor of commercial and military grade electronic components and hardware. Secure Components is the authorized distributor for ITW/CIP Aerospace Nut/Anchor Plates and East Coast Shielding, EMI Shielding Products. They are an AS9120 compliant, certified small business, headquartered in Norristown, PA just outside of Philadelphia, cage code 506Y0.

Secure Components has positioned itself to be a leader in supplying tantalum capacitors in the current shortage market. They offer a full array of commercial and military grade tantalum capacitors. In addition we support defense contract manufacturers by supplying hard to find, obsolete and long lead time components. Their goal is to exceed the expectations of every client by offering outstanding customer service, increased flexibility, and reducing internal sourcing costs and time. Their associates are distinguished by a combination of industry expertise and hands-on experience, thereby ensuring that their clients receive the most effective and professional service.

As critical material specialist, they provide just in time delivery. They supply new surplus, government surplus as well as new manufacture parts. Secure Components provides full traceability with our products, ranging from trace to the OEM, 129 and 145 trace as well as trace to prior government contracts. Secure Components specializes in assisting Military Contract Manufacturers with their needs for: hard to find parts and supplies, obsolete parts and supplies, small business initiatives and goals, sole source or other non-competitive situations.

Secure Components supports the Department of Defense, specifically, the US Army, US, Navy, US Air Force, and US Marines. Our Defense Contractor partners include; Lockheed Martin, Raytheon and L-3 Communications. In addition, they supply government agencies and contract manufacturers, prime contractors, subcontractors and foreign government agencies.
